

TIRED OUT!

At this season, nearly every one tends to use agents of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc. It HAS NO EQUAL, and the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or irritate the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BIRKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATKINS, 210 Third Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

THE CONDITION OF CROPS FOR THE MONTH OF MAY.

A Decline in the Average of Wheat Compared With Other Years—Average by States—The Season Advanced in All Parts of the Country—Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The report of the department of agriculture for May relates to the condition of winter grain progress of spring plowing, and proportion of the proposed cotton area already planted. It indicates a decline in the condition of wheat of two points since April 1. The general average for the whole country being 89 against 95 at the same date in 1886, 70 in 1885, and 94 in 1884.

The changes in condition have not been uniform throughout the winter wheat region, some states showing an increase, the majority a slight decline and a few a heavy falling off. The states of the middle Atlantic coast from Pennsylvania to North Carolina show some improvement, seasonable weather having aided the plant in recovering more than was expected from the injury done by the trying season during February and March. In New York and New Jersey the amount of winter killing was not fully known on April 1, and this with cold, unfavorable weather during the month has caused a serious reduction in condition.

Drought has reduced the average somewhat in the eastern gulf states, and has wrought very serious damage in Texas and Arkansas lowering condition during the month nineteen and ten points respectively. Favorable temperature and seasonable rains have improved the prospect in Tennessee, West Virginia and Kentucky, condition being considerably higher in these states than it has averaged in many for the past five years.

The most serious reduction of the month is in Ohio, where there is a falling off of eight points since the 1st of April, due to the continuing evil effects of the alternate freezing and thawing noted in the last report, and to the cold dry weather during the greater part of April, which gave the injured plant little chance for recuperation. A favorable season after April 1 might have, in a great measure, repaired the injury done up to that time, but the continued unfavorable conditions have wrought still further damage and a small crop is now inevitable. Michigan and Indiana show a slight decline, while in Illinois and Missouri there is a gain of one point. Unfavorable weather in Kansas and California has caused a slight falling off, while in Oregon the prospect has advanced, it being the only state in which condition reaches one hundred.

The averages of condition by states are: New York, 86; Pennsylvania, 72; Maryland, 84; Virginia, 80; North Carolina, 90; Texas, 60; Arkansas, 93; Tennessee, 92; West Virginia, 89; Kentucky, 95; Kentucky, 71; Michigan, 90; Indiana, 87; Illinois, 93; Missouri, 96; Kansas, 81; California, 89; Oregon, 101. Rye has suffered from the same conditions which have injuriously affected wheat, but on account of its harder nature, the general average is considerably higher, standing at 90.8 against 92 on April 1, and 95.7 at the same date in 1886.

The condition of barley is low, the average being 87.8 against 96.7 in May, 1886, and 82 in 1885.

The season has been more generally advanced in all parts of the country than usual, spring plowing being seriously behind only on the Atlantic coast south to Pennsylvania, and on the Pacific slope. In these sections it has been delayed by cold and excessive moisture. Elsewhere the work is ahead of an average year, the season, especially during April, having been generally favorable with temperature above the normal, and rainfall at minimum. The proportion already done on May 1 is estimated at 80 per cent. of the whole, while the amount usually completed at that date is about 76 per cent.

The portion of cotton already planted amounts to more than four-fifths of the proposed area and is slightly greater than at the same date in any of the preceding years, but it is a little less than the proportion returned by the correspondents as the average planting at that date. The proportions by states are: North Carolina, 70; South Carolina, 80; Georgia, 85; Alabama, 88; Mississippi, 84; Louisiana, 83; Texas, 82; Arkansas, 80; Tennessee, 80. There is some complaint of slow germination and a poor stand on account of drought at time of planting in some sections, but with favorable weather, replanting is rapidly filling all gaps.

Cut His Throat With a Shoe-Knife.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 11.—Henry Weisbecker, a shoemaker, living with an only daughter at 840 East Green street, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a small shoe-knife. The exact time the deed was committed will never be known, as Weisbecker was supposed to have left his home about 5 o'clock in the morning and was not known to be on the place until the body was found in the cellar last night. When discovered, the body was lying over a lot of bricks, with his face buried in a pile of dirt. The jugular vein, windpipe and the main arteries had been cleanly severed, while his neck had been broken in falling. The coroner returned a verdict that Weisbecker's death had been caused by knife wounds received at his own hands while in a fit of melancholia. The man was known to be subject to such attacks. Eight years ago his wife died, and ever since he has brooded over the loss to such an extent that his mind had become affected.

Four Killed at One Stroke.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 11.—A letter from Seaford Court House, Va., gives the details of the havoc by lightning in that vicinity. Terrible storms raged last Friday and Saturday, and many farm and other buildings were struck by lightning. Four persons were killed at the residence of Andrew Pearson. The four were killed by a single bolt. Mr. Wright, who stopped at Pearson's house for shelter in the storm, was one of the victims. During the storm he opened the door, when there was a terrible flash and he fell dead across the threshold. The electric bolt passed through the house, killing the three children as they played on the floor and tearing a hole through the wall.

THE DEAF MUTE MURDERER.

Walter Bingham Not in Arkansas, But Said to Be Confined.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 11.—The rumor that Walter Bingham, the deaf mute who murdered Miss Lizzie Tulkington, at Raleigh, N. C., last December, was hiding in the deaf mute institute here turns out to be unfounded. It is a matter of fact, however, that Professor Frances D. Clark, principal of the asylum, is well acquainted with Bingham, and that Bingham has also several old classmates who are teaching or otherwise employed about the institute. Professor Clark taught for a number of years at an institute in New York city, where Bingham was a pupil, and thus the professor numbers him among his former students.

The murder excited great interest here from this fact, and the institute people believed Bingham would make his way here. This, however, he did not do, and all the clues pointing to this state have been proven worthless. The rumor of his capture at Texarkana last week is likewise untrue. It is claimed that his friends are keeping him in a private asylum in New York until the feeling against him dies out, when he will be given up to the law and tried for murder, his defense being insanity.

RAPID TRANSIT IN MATRIMONY.

Divorce Suit Commenced, Decree Made and Woman Remarried in One Day.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 11.—Mrs. Sophia Kaufman filed an application for divorce at 10 o'clock yesterday morning; at 2 o'clock her prayer was granted; at 4 o'clock she secured another license, and at 7 o'clock she was again a bride, and hopes to be happy. She was first married seven years ago, but her matrimonial experience was brief, as her husband deserted her at the end of ten days. He has never been heard of since, but a child, over six years old, is the fruit of the brief union. Karl Bischoff began courting her two years ago, and found her willing to marry him. A lawyer was consulted last week, and he prepared a petition for divorce which, with indisputable proof of her husband's abandonment, was filed before Chancellor Edwards when he went on the bench yesterday morning. The case was considered and her prayer granted. As soon as the decree was made out the buxom petitioner took Bischoff and her lawyer to the county court, the marriage license was quickly procured, and she was soon Mrs. Karl Bischoff. The parties are all well known Germans.

A Two Ounce Glove Fight.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 11.—Jack Cusick and Tom Hinch fought a two ounce glove match last night, in the presence of 1,000 spectators. It was a hard fight until the tenth round, when Inspector Riener separated the pugilists. Cusick had Hinch on the floor when time was called at the end of the ninth round, and this gave Hinch an opportunity to recover himself. The fight was stopped owing to the vicious manner in which the combatants went at each other. In the second round Cusick broke his left hand, but continued the fight. It was declared a draw.

Attempted Suicide.

TIFFIN, O., May 11.—Mathias Hingleman, a German laborer aged fifty, attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon, but was discovered just as he had the rope around his neck. He had been drinking hard, and was despondent. He comes from a wealthy German family.

Driven to Suicide By His Wife.

OMAHA, Neb., May 11.—William Holdschneider, of Harlan, Iowa, was found dead in bed to-day at his hotel in this city, with his throat cut. He left a note stating the cause of the suicide to be that he was driven from home by his wife, who took up with another man.

Boy Killed By Cars.

IRONTON, O., May 11.—Leland Roberts, aged fourteen, son of Samuel Roberts, late of Gallia county, was killed by a switch engine on the Sciota Valley railroad here last night. He was stealing a ride on the engine, fell off and was struck.

Smuggled Goods Seized.

BOSTON, May 11.—Customs inspectors yesterday seized six smuggled cigars and some Jamaica rum and wine from the schooner Rebecca R. Nickerson, of Boothbay, from Barre, and arrested her master, Capt. A. W. Tattler.

Dead Centurians.

VIEJA CRUZ, May 11.—Within the past four days four extremely aged people have died here. They were Valentina Munoz, aged 110; Martin Montalvo, aged 107; Jacinto Cordoba, aged 100, and Gertrudes de la Cruz, aged 98.

It Is Now Only Two.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Louis De Beban, a New York agent of the French line of steamers, received a cable dispatch from Havre yesterday, stating that so far as known only two Italians on the steamer La Champagne were drowned.

Could Well Afford It.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 11.—Daniel Haud, of Guilford, who has received $700,000 from Banker Williams, of Charleston, in payment of unsecured debts contracted many years ago, has given $25,000 to the Yale Divinity school.

Boy Murders His Sister.

IONIA, Mich., May 11.—The fourteen-year-old son of Miles Ader, a farmer near here, fatally shot his sister, aged twelve years, yesterday, after remarking, "She won't bother me any more." The boy has been arrested.

Toledo Cadets in Camp.

TOLEDO, O., May 11.—The Toledo cadets, who are to participate in the National drill at Washington, have gone into camp here, where they will stay during the two weeks yet to elapse before going to Washington.

A Horrid Crime.

MATAMORAS, Mex., May 11.—In Guadalupe Francisco Rodriguez fell in love with the wife of his son, Jacarias, and murdered the boy to get possession of the woman.

Examiner in the Custom House.

NEW YORK, May 11.—William R. Jameson has been appointed examiner in the custom house at this point.

DESTRUCTIVE FLAMES.

HANOVER, NEW HAMPSHIRE, SUFFERS A VERY HEAVY LOSS.

Six Hundred Men Thrown Out of Employment and Sixty Families Homeless—A Call for Assistance From the Fire Departments of Other Cities.

HANOVER, N. H., May 11.—The most destructive fire that North New Hampshire has ever known occurred this morning in Lebanon, breaking out in Mead, Mason & Co.'s furniture factory at 1 o'clock. The adjoining buildings also occupied by Mead, Mason & Co., built of wood and filled with inflammable materials, were soon destroyed. A call for help from out of town fire departments was made, and Hanover, Enfield and Concord gave all the assistance they could.

Meanwhile the fire worked southerly, burning everything in that direction, including Kendrick & Davis' watch key factory, C. M. Baxter's machine shop, S. Cole & Sons' foundry and machine shops, Rogers' woolen mill, B. T. Tilden's wood working shop, occupied by Muchmore & Whipple and others, W. F. Shaw's grist mill, Free Press printing office buildings; livery stable and marble shop, Baldwin's block, Pulsifer's block Marston's saw mill, the old Lafayette hotel building, C. D. Scott's stable, the Mascoma house, twenty-five dwellings and the balance store houses, barns and shops. The burned district covers nearly ten acres on both sides of the Mascoma river.

Every manufacturing establishment in the village except Kendrick's woolen mill is destroyed. The entire loss is not less than $300,000, with insurance of about $110,000. Mead, Mason & Co.'s loss is about $100,000 with not less than $10,000 insurance. The insurance in home companies aggregates about $94,000. Six hundred men are thrown out of employment, and sixty families are homeless.

Jennie Boemer Dies.

LOUISVILLE, May 11.—Jennie Boemer died last night at 9:30. All day yesterday the poor girl was sinking, and passed away without a struggle, surrounded by his father, brother, physicians and friends. An autopsy will be held this morning. It will be remembered that on the morning of Thursday, April 21, the girl discovered two negroes trying to rob the house. She grappled with one, and during the struggle was beaten over the head with a fire poker until insensible. The two men then outraged the outraged unconscious girl and fled. Turner has not yet been informed of the death of his victim, but said yesterday that he expected she would die and that he would swing for it. The grand jury will hear the cases of the murderers May 13.

Leaped From a Train.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 11.—This morning John Devine and George Barton made a daring escape from Lieut. of Police Weaver and Deputy Sheriff Drake. They were on the way to the penitentiary at Columbus, having been sentenced to two years each for car robbery. Soon after leaving this city, and while the B. & O. train was running thirty-five miles an hour, the men broke away from the officers, the handcuffs having been removed, and running to the platform jumped from the cars, making their escape across the country. The officers had two other prisoners in charge and could not give chase.

Doubtful Insurance Companies.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 11.—The Evening Journal prints the official report of E. E. Walker, examiner of insurance companies of this state, to Commissioner Shandrew. The report will, no doubt, create some uneasiness in certain quarters when read. The methods of business followed by several companies are severely criticised. Among such companies are the American Life, St. Paul; Mutual Beneficial association, Union Endowment, St. Paul, and Minnesota Mutual Benefit, of Minneapolis. The examiner recommends that some of these concerns had better change their plans or wind up their affairs, as they are not able to pay the full amount of their policies, and would have to resort to questionable methods of compromising with their policy holders, so as not to have to pay the full amount of policies.

A Circular Denouncing Powderly.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Daily News to-day publishes a long circular said to have been sent out to all prominent Knights of Labor and secretaries of assemblies in California, Oregon, Colorado, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan and Missouri by Local Assembly 8133, of Portland, Ore. The circular denounces General Master Workman Powderly for his rejecting over the result of the Chicago municipal election, and embodies resolutions passed by the assembly demanding that Mr. Powderly be deposed from office. The News further says that the knights are on the eve of a great revolt, and the circular is the result of a concerted move by which, if the assembly is suspended, a general withdrawal from the order will follow.

Arrests for a Mississippi Murder.

JACKSON, Miss., May 11.—The following parties were arrested to-day upon an affidavit sworn out by the Rev. J. H. Gambrell, father of Roderick Gambrell, the young man who was killed on Thursday night; Jones S. Hamilton, principal; Mingo Eubank, William Hardy, a negro; W. H. Figures and J. W. Albrecht, accessories. The last four are in jail. Hamilton is under guard at his residence, where he will be detained some time on account of his wounds. Great excitement prevails in the community, and the trial will be watched with great interest. All the parties are well known throughout the state and have numerous friends.

The Tables Turned.

MR. STERLING, Ky., May 11.—Squire Silas Stoffer, who released Cornelson on a writ of habeas corpus, was himself arrested yesterday for unlawfully and willfully aiding and abetting the escape of a prisoner lawfully detained in the Montgomery county jail. The trial takes place Wednesday.

Awakened By a Train Rolling Over Him.

MACON, Ga., May 11.—A negro on the Georgia railroad last night made a pillow of his coat and lay down between the cross ties and went to sleep. He was aroused by a passenger train rolling over him, and as he raised his head a bolt on a brake beam struck him, tearing off the top of his skull.

DETROIT'S MISFORTUNE.

How Near She Came to Possessing "Christ Before Filate."

NEW YORK, May 11.—Ex-Governor Alger, of Michigan, while in Paris last summer, saw Munkacz's painting, "Christ Before Filate," and on its arrival in New York he offered Munkacz's agent, Sedelmeyer, $60,000 for it. The offer was refused. Mr. Alger and Mr. Sedelmeyer afterward met in Detroit and Mr. Alger offered $90,000, which was accepted. A contract for the delivery of the picture was drawn up and signed, and Governor Alger paid $2,500 to bind the bargain. The picture was to have been forwarded to him on his return from a trip to California and Mexico.

Governor Alger has a fondness for Munkacz's paintings, and had already bought "Kittens" at a cost of $8,000 by the same artist. While on his way to California he received a telegram from Mr. Sedelmeyer stating that the painting had been sold, without his (Sedelmeyer's) knowledge, to Wannamaker, of Philadelphia, for $100,000, and he offered the governor $3,000 for the release. This was declined. Mr. Alger finally let Sedelmeyer off on the payment of $8,000, the price he had paid for "Kittens," and Detroit lost "Christ Before Filate," which Governor Alger proposed to put in the new art gallery as a gift to the people of that city. It is stated that Governor Alger has now offered $45,000 for Munkacz's "Last Days of Mozart," but that it is held at $50,000.

NO VOLCANOS IN ARIZONA.

Forest Fires Were the Only Ones General Forsyth's Explores Found.

BENSON, Ariz., May 11.—All other reports to the contrary notwithstanding, no volcanic eruptions have occurred in southern Arizona. On the 3d inst., simultaneously with the severe earthquake shocks experienced here, great clouds of smoke appeared over the peaks of the Whetstone mountains, south of this point, and at night the horizon was brilliantly illuminated by what was supposed to be volcanic fires, but the phenomenon continued during several days following the earthquake, and on the 5th inst. an exploring party, under the leadership of Gen. Forsyth, commanding Fort Huachuca, started to the Whetstone mountains, for the purpose of investigating the seismic eruptions.

They returned on the 7th, and reported that there was no volcanic eruption, though signs of upheaval and mountain slides from Thursday's earthquake were abundantly visible, and that the brilliant illumination of the sky and clouds of smoke, were caused by forest fires, which they had traced to the carelessness of some Mexican campers, who had camped on the mountain Monday night. This report effectively explodes the volcanic sensation among the people of Benson. Another severe shock of earthquake was experienced here at 1:14 yesterday afternoon. No damage was done, but it created great consternation among the people.

"Dixie Now and Dixie Then."

NEW YORK, May 11.—Maj. Charles H. Smith, of Georgia, whose quaint writing under the sobriquet of "Bill Arp" have been widely copied in newspapers, especially of the south and west, amused an audience at Chickering hall last night for an hour and a half with a lecture on "Dixie Now and Dixie Then." He drew pictures of the old Southern aristocracy as modified by the war and filled in his sketch with odd fancies of comment and description. He noted the improvement of the southern masses as a compensation for the decadence of the aristocracy. He observed that under the pressure of the new order the southern girls are getting better education, while the southern boys are going to work instead of college. He calculated that the estimated loss to the south by the manumission of the slaves was largely fictitious, and that in many cases the loss of the slaves was a profit to the master. One of his sayings was: "My mother was from Charleston and my father from Massachusetts. When I was a child I used to get mad and fight all by myself. Mother said it was only Massachusetts fighting South Carolina."

Taken to a Tree and Hanged.

NEW ORLEANS, May 11.—West Carroll Parish, in which a mob burned the store of Simon Witkowski and drove him from the parish, a few months ago, has again become the scene of mob violence. Last Thursday a mob at Floyd seized upon Richard Goodwin and Grace Blanton, both colored, and hanged them to a tree for robbing the store of M. Bain. It is said that while mob violence is deprecated by the people, the action of this particular mob is condemned because, as a local correspondent naively says, there is no doubt of the guilt of the accused persons, the woman having confessed and the goods having been found in the possession of the victims. It is not stated that they were confirmed criminals or that the people had become exasperated at their continued depredations. They simply robbed a store and were hanged.

Prospect of Another Kentucky War.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., May 11.—Another double Kentucky tragedy. Peter Tripp and Alexander Caldwell, well known farmers, last week quarreled about a fence, and parted threatening to kill each other on sight. Both armed themselves, and last evening met on the road near town, and at once opened fire on each other. Tripp was instantly killed. Caldwell lived until this morning. It is believed that their sons will continue the feud.

Death of a Prominent Business Man.

NEW YORK, May 11.—B. B. Bulwinkle, president of the Arizona Cattle company, and one of the most prominent business men of the territory, died in Flagstaff, A. T., on Friday last. He acquired a National reputation as chief of the Chicago Insurance patrol, which place he held for eighteen years. During this time he became famous for his many acts of gallantry and skillful management of the Salvage corps.

Taken to the Asylum.

CHICAGO, May 11.—A special to the Times from Toronto says: John Bell, member of parliament for Addington, has been taken to the Toronto Insane asylum. His disease, which is softening of the brain, and is incurable, was brought on by sickness. Mr. Bell had been in poor health for six months, and it is thought his anxiety over the recent general elections has brought on the more serious complaint.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, MAY 11, 1887.

"I told you so."

We didn't tell you so, but—well, wait and see.

We anxiously await further particulars as to the Republican's "vindication."

Our able contemporary has gone to moralizing on the gas controversy. "That do settle it."

Eighty-seven counties in Texas are said to have neither preachers nor churches. If this is true, the different congregations should give a little more attention to their home missions.

SOME of the citizens of Lexington are making fools of themselves by signing a petition praying the Governor to pardon Cornhillson. There ought to be a let-up in the pardon business, and in remitting fines.

THE Republican is not a Communist; it does not want an article cheap at the loss or expense of its friends.—Daily Republican.

The public will now breathe easier. But the question arises: "Who are 'its friends'?"—we mean the Republican's friends. Don't all answer at once. One at a time will do.

SPEAKER CARLISLE'S name is frequently heard of late in connection with the Presidency, and there is undoubtedly an attempt to boom him for the place. With Cleveland out of the way, Carlisle's chances for the nomination are much better than those of any one else. Senator Blackburn thinks Carlisle and Hill would make a strong ticket.

OUR able contemporary, the Republican, still puts in its little say on the State finances. The blunderer who does the Republican's figuring is the same individual who made a mistake of about $500,000 in running through four or five items showing the work of the State Board of Equalization on the assessment of this county. He made a big blow claiming that the Board had raised the assessment of the county over half a million dollars, when in fact the assessment had been reduced over $225,000. Moreover he has never corrected his mistake.

ANENT the gas controversy, the Republican remarks:

"It is astonishing how many people are satisfied to get something 'cheap' at the expense of others."

Come to think of it, it is really astonishing that so many people want to get something, gas for instance, at a price that is reasonable and not oppressive. The argument of our neighbor amounts to just this: The few should oppress the many, and, if there's anything to be had "cheap" at the expense of others, the few should be the ones to have it. The majority shouldn't have anything cheap, not even gas. Turn about's fair play, and the majority's turn has come.

THE Republican papers who are doing so much howling because most of the Democratic State ticket are "ex-Rebels," should cease their chatter. It is totally uncalled for. If our information is correct, there is not a single ex-Federal of any prominence or ability in the State who has ever asked for anything and did not receive it or something better. The Louisville Times talks to the point thusly: "Rousseau, Adams, Wolford and others were sent to Congress by Democratic votes. Garrett Davis was the pillar of the Union sentiment in Kentucky. John G. Carlisle was a Home Guard, and carried a 'Lincoln musket.' Hindman, Dawson and Marcum have been elected to State offices. Where is the ex-Federal Kentucky Democrat who is kicking?"

Pithy Points From Washington.

We are opposed to the liquor business because it manufactures drunkards.

We are opposed to it because its end is to lead men to the poor house, lunatic asylum and perdition.

We are opposed to it because it is the enemy of all that is good, and the ally of all that is vicious.

We are opposed to it because it makes bad men of good ones, and brutes and fiends of bad men.

We are opposed to it because it is the feeder of the alms house, the jail, the penitentiary and the gallows.

We are opposed to the whisky traffic because it is a burden to the family, to society and the Government.

We are opposed to it because it makes men unruly, idle, vicious, worthless, treacherous and blood-thirsty.

We are opposed to it because it takes food and clothing from children, and causes them to grow up in poverty and ignorance.

We are opposed to it because it makes bleary-eyed drunkards of so many of our boys and young men.

We are opposed to the liquor traffic because it incites to violence, crime, anarchy and ruin.

We are opposed to it because it brings only trouble, poverty, suffering and woe to so many households in all the land.

We are opposed to it because it blights the hope of many a father and mother, and hurries them to an early grave.

We are opposed to this unmitigated evil because its only tendency is to crime and sorrow, and because it ruins men not only for time, but dooms their souls to destruction for all eternity.

Seize the Opportunity Ere it is Too Late.

When we consider the uncertainty of every event of life, let us remember that the 203rd grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery took place at New Orleans, on Tuesday (always Tuesday), April 12th, 1887, under the sole supervision and control of Gen'l G. T. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A. Early, of Va., when $522,500 was sent flying around the world where it would probably do the most good. Thusly: No. 67,060 drew the first capital prize of $150,000, which was sold in fractional parts of tenths at $1 each, sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.; one was held by Geo. P. Stackhouse, for himself and fifteen painters in the establishment of Goodell & Waters, Philadelphia; one to Ambrose Gilliland, of Moweaqua, Ill., collected through Decatur Nat'l Bank, Decatur, Ill.; one by Mrs. M. R. Fewberry, Cheboygan, Mich.; one was paid through the London, Paris and American Bank, limited; one through the Anglo-Californian Bank, limited; two through Wells, Fargo & Co., the latter of San Francisco, Cal.; the others elsewhere, the publication of whose names is objected to; No. 23,899 drew the second prize of $50,000, also sold in tenths at $1 each; one to J. M. Stotts, Dee, Ark.; one to Roy J. Bour, Canton, O.; one to W. C. Hammock, Griffin, Ga.; one to C. W. Tweedy, Augusta, Ga.; one to A. L. Robb, Atchison, Kansas; the others went elsewhere. No. 67,901 drew the third of $20,000, also sold in tenths at $1 each; one to H. T. Davis and B. S. Webber, Portland, Me.; one to P. H. Dwyer, Boston, Mass.; one to G. Ragin, Clarksville, Texas; the rest elsewhere. Nos. 22,735 and 50,830 drew each one of the fourth prizes of $10,000 and were scattered hither and yon, everywhere over the world, and now it soon will be the 20th monthly and grand extraordinary drawing on Tuesday, June 14th, 1887, when $1,055,000 will be scattered in sums from $300,000 down to $100. Whole tickets are $20; and fractional parts from halves at $10, to twentieths at $1. Any information can be had of M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. It is well to seize the opportunity ere it is too late.

"Nip't in the Bud?"

Sad to say, many a good thing attains to nothing more than a fair beginning. On the other hand it is a matter for congratulation that the growth of some evil things may be also promptly frustrated. A large proportion of the cases of the most wide-spread and fatal of diseases—consumption have their inception in nasal catarrh. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is pleasant, soothing and effectual. Try it. It has cured thousands. All druggists.

A Printer's Error.

Sweet are the uses of adversity, the printer's copy said, but he set it up, sweet are the uses of advertising. Sweet, indeed, to those who in sickness and suffering have seen the advertisement of some sovereign remedy, which upon that trial has brought them from death's door. "The best thing I ever saw in my paper was the advertisement of Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery'." is again and again the testimony of those who have been healed by it of lung disease, bronchial affections, tumors, ulcers, liver complaints and the ills to which flesh is heir.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell, & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Pecor & Co.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLICK.

James Swartz, of Robertson County, sold to Lee Thomas, an unbroken gelding for $127.50.

William W. Dye sold his combined sorrel gelding to Mr. Smoot, of Germantown, for $175.

Hiram Dye, Esq., sold his carriage horse, "Banks," to George Myall for $200.

David Dye drives the finest three-year-old gelding we have ridden behind this season.

Thomas McElvain and Bud Marshall have put up a good deal of picket fence in and about Chocktaw.

Millard Jefferson, who had been a great sufferer, passed peacefully away last Monday morning. Funeral by Elder Spears in the Presbyterian Church in this place Tuesday at 3 o'clock p. m. The remains were placed in Shadon cemetery, by request of deceased, by the side of his mother. A large concourse of friends and relatives were in attendance.

The literary and musical recital at "Forest Home," Friday evening, was a success. Prof. Frost was detained at home by indisposition, but a stage manager was selected and a programme was improvised and everything went off most enjoyably. Mrs. Lou Cady Ross, of Mayaville, gave a number of recitations of the serio-comic nature. Miss Lizzie Robinson gave "The Day Before the Wedding."

The little comedy, "Love's Triumph," by Miss Emma Stoker and Miss Annie Dye, was received with high appreciation. The vocal and instrumental pieces by Misses Nancy Raymond, Layman and Misses Layman were well rendered. The illustrated "Honey-moon Waltz," by Dr. Davis and Miss Ida Thompson and Sanford Ross and Miss Zula Layman, was a fitting finale to the evening's festivities. The High Quartette sang some excellent selections.

LOVE'S HARMONY.

Slow glide the hours. All pleasure is but pain.
Dim is the sunlight on the upland hill,
And cold the fiercest glow of summer's prime
Until we meet again.
Speak, then, dear heart, speak but one gentle word
And bid me hasten to thy side at last.
That so the future, lost in vague, sweet hope,
Blot out the troublous past.

Clear came a voice from out the silent wood—
Deep in my soul its perfect harmony
Sank like the echo of an ancient chime,
Hallow'd to memory.
Nearer it came—and then as in a dream
My love and I once more together stand
Where troublous past and smiling future meet
Forever hand in hand.
While from the upland hill a gleam of light
Breaks thro' the dusky gloom of dreary night,
And mystic murmurs, trembling soft above,
Low mingle in the new born song of love.

A FORTUNATE JOURNALIST.

Trying to Escape the Uncivilized Climate of the United States—To Cuba.

One of the gentlemen of the editorial fraternity who inherited a fortune, who is in the "social seven," and has met the Prince of Wales, is Allen Thornydyke Rice, the editor of The North American Review. He has a good time rushing all over this country, going to Cuba to escape the dreadful winter of America, and going to England to get rid of the horrid summers of the latitude of New York. I sometimes think a rich poor man, who happens to be born an American citizen, has a hard time of it trying to escape the uncivilized climate of the United States. May, June and October appear to be the only tolerable months in the calendar for your fashionable gentleman who has a fortune at his disposal.

I saw Mr. Rice in Washington a few days since. He is a middle aged, medium sized gentleman, with dark hair and eyes, a rather thin voice, and quick in his speech and motion. He reminds me of Henry Gillig, of the American Exchange, in London, who is always in a rushing hurry. Gillig only has time to say: "How'd ye do! I'm off. Just got in on a Cunarder! Going down to Fortress Monroes to stop over Sunday. Expect to start for San Francisco next week. Have some matters to look after on the Pacific coast. Shall be in Chicago over night." That is Gillig. As they say of Mr. Totts in "Dombey and Son": "Shakey, shivery, how are you?" Some might say, "Whirligig Gillig, whither away?" Thornydyke Rice was just in from Cuba when I met him.

"Go down to Cuba for an entire change of mind," said he. "For a man with all sorts of bothers and things, the best thing he can do is to go to Cuba for ten days. No, I don't speak Spanish, but I do speak French and German, and I got along with a little Latin. Well, yes, they still have a captain general in Cuba, who lives in considerable style. There was a day, I believe, when they had to pass a law prohibiting the paving of the court yard of the palace with silver. You should see a sugar plantation by all means when you go to Cuba, and you will be intensely lucky, you know, if you voyage along the east coast. The scenery is very fine. I had to hurry home to look after a little business that is hanging fire. They asked me to stay longer, but I said 'No, thanks very much!'"—Fuller Walker in Kansas City Journal.

Mysterious Death on the Bristol.

FALL RIVER, Mass., May 11.—Augustus E. Soper, a passenger on the steamer Bristol, from New York, died this morning between Newport and this city. He was second mate of a schooner which recently arrived in New York, and occupied a stateroom in company with Capt. McKinnon, who claimed to be captain of the same schooner. The latter's story was that they were on their way to Boston, where Soper had friends; that Soper was taken sick with something during the night; that he (McKinnon) assisted him and then went back to the upper berth and went to sleep, and upon arriving in this city found Soper dead in the lower berth. McKinnon left for Boston saying he would notify Soper's friends, but up to a late hour nothing has been heard from them. An examination of Soper's body developed no signs of foul play.

A Canal Washout.

FREDERICK, Md., May 11.—Navigation on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal has been stopped by a break eighty feet long and from fifteen to twenty feet below the bed or ordinary bottom of the canal, about fifteen miles above Frederick. The break occurred last night from the effects of the heavy rains which have swollen all the streams during the past few days. Seventy-five men are at work to-day upon the washout, and navigation will probably resume in ten days.

High Temperature.

WATERLOO, Iowa, May 11.—The temperature yesterday ranged from 94 to 98 degrees above in the shade; the highest thus far this season. The heat caused the rails on the Illinois Central branch to expand, ditching a passenger train near Charles City, but injured no one. Near Blairsburg the track was disturbed from the same cause, but it was discovered in time to prevent an accident.

Burned to Death.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, May 11.—About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon several little boys, none over seven years old, accidentally set fire to the barn of Mrs. Fairall, and Kirk, the five-year-old son of Herbert S. Fairall, editor of the Daily Republican, was burned to death. The little son of Professor E. M. Booth was badly burned about the head and breast.

A Fraternal Affair.

GALLOWAY, O., May 11.—Samuel and Archibell Kell, brothers, fought here yesterday and shot each other. Archibell was shot in the left breast and Sam in the neck. The latter's wound is probably fatal. Sam is married, and has been suspicious that all was not right between his wife and his brother. Last fall he discovered signs of this, and shot his brother in the left breast, near the present wound.

Catholic Knights of America.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The annual convention of the Catholic Knights of America opened this morning at the Palmer house with an attendance of two hundred delegates from the principal states of the Union. Judge Russell, of the Kentucky supreme court, presided and the proceedings were conducted in secret.

Chewed Up By Flames.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 11.—A special to the News and Observer from Durham says the plug tobacco factory of Corbett, Patton & Co. was destroyed by fire last night. Nothing was saved. The loss is $15,000; insurance about $12,000.

SUNRISE.

Bounding up through Night's wall dense and dark,
Embattled crags and clouds, outbroke the sun
Above the unconscious earth, and one by one
Her heights and depths absorbed to the last spark.

His field glory, from the far fine ridge
Of mountain granite which, transformed to gold,
Laughed at first the thanks back, to the vale's dusk fold

On fold of vapor-swathing, like a bridge
Shattered beneath some giant's stamp: Night
wist

Her work done and betook herself in mist
To marsh and hollow, there to bide her time
Blindly in acquiescence. Everywhere
Did earth acknowledge sun's embrace sublime,
Thrilling her to the heart of things; since there
No ore ran liquid, no spar branched anew.
No arrowy crystal gleamed, but straightway grew

Glad through the inrush—glad nor more nor less
Than, "neath his gaze, forest and wilderness,
Hill, dale, land, sea, the whole vast stretch and spread.

The universal world of creatures, bred
By sun's munificence, alike gave praise—
All creatures but one only; gaze for gaze,
Joyless and thankless, who—all scowling can—
Protests against the innumerable praises! Man,
Sullen and silent.

Stand thou forth, then state
Thy wrong, thou sole aggrieved—disconsolate—
While every beast, bird, reptile, insect, gay
And glad acknowledges the bounteous day!

FASHIONS FOR THE DEAD.

How the Customs of Dressing for the Grave Have Been Changed.

There have been within the last few years many marked changes in the conduct and in the accessories of funerals. The changes have been brought by influences not clearly definable. One old lady who died not long ago lay in her narrow casket robed in a pilgrim suit of brown broadcloth, the cape covering her shoulders and shrunken form, and a girdle holding the gathers about the waist. A small, close, little felt bonnet was worn, and the infusion of some chemical gave the face a most lifelike appearance. A favorite funeral gown is the modified Greek dress, such as Mary Anderson, Miss Eastlake and Ellen Terry have been seen in. These outfits are made without trimming, possibly a girdle or braided cape being used as a finish. The fabric used is some fine flannel or worsted cloth of a yellowish white color.

Not two years ago the wife of a rich young west sider was dressed in a fac-simile costume of that worn by Viola Allen in "Virginius." Her sickness had been very brief, and when "the final summons" came the body retained its lovely round contour. In the coffin the arms and neck were bare, the yellow hair was arranged in loose ringlets about the face, and a necklace of pearl beads encircled the throat.

The winding sheet has been revived, and if the rumor one gives ear to can be credited some very prominent people will "wrap the drapery of their couch about them" when they go hence. The quotation is hardly pertinent, for in place of the cold, white winding sheet of the "sailor boy," a plaid of white billiard cloth, made after the style of Sir John Moore's sable robe, is considered the thing. So far the winding sheet has been used in Chicago at the bier of young men, and then the funeral services have been conducted with great privacy.

Another innovation at funerals is the evening or vesper burial. Services are held at the residence late in the afternoon, the friends retire immediately afterward and at nightfall the coffin is placed in the undertaker's carriage and driven to the vault, followed by a single coupe. This programme is becoming very general in west side circles and is preferred to any other arrangement when the remains are taken out of the city for burial.—Inter Ocean.

The two came to blows and William's girl was knocked down with a stick of wood. He interfered and struck at Anna with a knife, inflicting a slight wound on the arm.

NOTABLE NUPTIALS.

The Marriage of Elder E. L. Powell and Miss Lida P. Smoot.

The Pastor of the Christian Church Weds One of the Fairest of His Flock. Nature Smiles Upon the Happy Union.

Miss Lida P. Smoot became the bride of Elder E. L. Powell at half-past 10 o'clock this morning. The nuptial ceremony was celebrated in the Christian Church. Elder E. C. Ricketts, a relative of the bride, officiated, and spoke the words that made the happy twain one. He was assisted by Elder R. L. Cave, a relative of the groom.

The groom is a Virginian by birth, having been born in King William County, that State. After an earnest and thorough preparation in the schools of his native State, he entered the ministry; his chosen work, some years ago, and has been a zealous and eminently successful laborer in the cause of the church ever since. His first charge in Kentucky was at Hopkinsville. Some three years ago he was called to the Christian Church of this city. He accepted the call, and no pastor of that church, or any other church in Maysville, has ever proved more popular than he, or is more admired and beloved by his congregation. His earnest and eloquent preaching has been richly rewarded, and has given him a most enviable reputation throughout the State. It is not going too far to say that he, though young in years, has no superiors and but few equals among the ministers of the Christian Church in Kentucky.

The young bride whose fortunes were linked to-day with those of her eloquent pastor by the silken cords of love, is connected with two prominent families of this city and county, being a daughter of the late Henry G. Smoot, and a grand-daughter of the late S. S. Miner. She is admired and loved wherever known for her many graces of mind and heart. She is a member of the Christian Church, has been a close attendant upon the services, and always takes an active interest therein. Her mother and many of her relatives are also members of the church, and as a result of Mr. Powell's pastorate he was thrown much with the family. He became a frequent visitor at Miss Smoot's home. The friendship of the pastor ripened into the admiration and devotion of the lover, and the marriage engagement followed.

The nuptials this morning have been the main topic of interest among his congregation and in social circles for weeks past. No invitations were issued, but the groom announced the nuptials from his pulpit last Sunday, and extended a cordial invitation to his parishioners. The church was opened at 9 o'clock, and the large audience room was soon filled to overflowing by the many who desired to witness "the happy union of two hearts that beat as one." The bright sunlight of a spring day morning gladdened the hearts of all, and nature smiled her approval. Professor Kappes presided at the organ, and soft, sweet music greeted the guests on the appearance of the bridal party. The altar and pulpit were hidden beneath a bank of beautiful flowers. Roses, fuchsias, geraniums, begonias, heliotropes, lilies and other lovely flowers, with their many colors, lent an additional charm to the scene. The decorations were profuse and handsome, and had been artistically arranged by the ladies of the church. Accompanying the music of the wedding march, the bridal party entered the church and passed down the aisle in the following order: Dr. P. G. Smoot, a cousin of the bride, of Flemingsburg, and Mr. James E. Threlkeld, of this city, following them were Miss Mamie Culbertson, of this city, and Miss Fannie Howe, of Flemingsburg.

Next came Dr. Garrett H. Helton and Mr. Harry C. McDougle, followed by Misses Emma and Lena Means, all of this city; Mr. John T. Powell, a brother of the groom, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Jennie Clifton Taylor, of this city, came next and were followed by the groom and bride. The attendants grouped themselves in a semicircle in front of the pulpit, with the happy couple in the center, and standing beneath a floral canopy of handsome design. The venerable minister, Elder Ricketts, assisted by Elder Cave, officiated, using the simple marriage service of the Christian Church.

The wedding gown worn by the bride was marked by its richness and elegant simplicity, the loveliness of the bride being heightened by the artistic arrangement of the drapery. The gown was of white surah silk, with drapery of duchesse lace and ribbons; high V-shaped bodice, with collar of lace; elbow-sleeves, with gloves of undressed kid. The bride carried a bouquet of rare bride roses. A bonnet of white lace completed the lovely toilet. The groom was attired in a neat-fitting black coat, Prince Albert style, with vest and pantaloons to match; and white tie. Miss Jennie Clifton Taylor, as maid of honor, wore a gown of cream albatross, with drapery of surah silk and ribbons; V-shaped bodice, with collar of lace; elbow-sleeves and gloves to match the color of the gown. The rest of the bridesmaids, Miss Emma Means, Miss Lena Means, Miss Mamie Culbertson, of this city, and Miss Fannie Howe, of Flemingsburg, all wore gowns of pink albatross, with drapery of moire silk, lace and ribbons; square cut corsage; elbow-sleeves; and Jonquil-colored gloves. They all carried bouquets of rare roses. The groomsmen were all attired in full dress suit.

After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride where an elegant wedding breakfast was served. The couple left on the noon train en route to Norfolk, Va., where they will spend the honeymoon. They will be given a reception this evening at Lexington at the home of Elder Shouse, pastor of the Christian Church of that place.

Among the list of elegant and costly presents received by the couple, were the following: Set of solid silver table cutlery, pearl-handle, and handsomely engraved, from the ladies of the church; elegant open-faced gold watch to the groom by the Young Men's Aid Society; gold watch to bride by groom's brother; handsome French clock by groomsmen. These are only a few of the long list which attest, in but a slight manner, the high esteem in which the couple are held by their many acquaintances.

Removal.

Dr. G. M. Williams has removed his dental office to building on Third street, adjoining Dr. Shackelford's office.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at J. C. Pecor & Co's and S. P. Campbell & Co's, Aberdeen, O.

Receiver Appointed.

In the Circuit Court yesterday, a decision was rendered in the case of Benjamin Johnson and others against the Mayslick and Elizaville Turnpike Road Company. The plaintiffs are Benjamin Johnson, J. H. Shanklin and S. P. Scruggs, and they were given judgment for $552. The turnpike was ordered placed in the hands of J. T. Shanklin as Receiver, and "all profits arising from the operation of the road over and above keeping it in repair and paying the expense of the receivership," were ordered to be sequestered and applied to the payment of plaintiffs' debt, interest and cost. The road extends from Mayslick to the Flemings County line, where it connects with a road running to Elizaville.

New Trial.

The litigation between the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad Company and Dr. John T. Fleming over the right of way through the latter's property at the mouth of Limestone Creek isn't yet ended. The appeal of the company from a decision of the County Court was heard last week, and the jury returned a verdict in Dr. Fleming's favor for $3,000, a reduction of $1,000 from the judgment in the lower court. Motions and grounds for a new trial were filed by Dr. Fleming and Judge Cole yesterday sustained them. The case was set for to-morrow morning, and will have to be gone through with again.

Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt was one of the jurors who heard the case last week, and it was remembered after the trial that he was one of the guarantors for the right of way through this county. The motion for a new trial was granted on this ground.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co. Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., says: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by J. C. Pecor & Co.

AMERICANS IN EUROPE.

THE WHEREABOUTS OF MANY OF OUR VISITING CITIZENS.

Queen Victoria's Drawing Room and Who Were Present—Mr. Manning Greatly Improved in Health—Emperor William's Feelings—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 11.—The queen's drawing room to-day was the largest held for years past. Five hundred ladies, mostly English, were present. The following were the American ladies presented: Mrs. Arthur Post, Miss Morgan, grand-daughter of J. S. Morgan; Mrs. Ezra Warner and Miss Warner, of Chicago; Mrs. Vanwarte and Miss Vanwarte, of New York; Mrs. H. L. Horton, of Brooklyn; Miss Gallup, of Providence; Mrs. Whitworth Stuart and Miss Florence N. Smith, of New York, and Mrs. Van Zollikofer, of Virginia.

Mrs. and Miss Manning, the wife and daughter of the ex-secretary of the treasury, spent last week in Paris with Mrs. Corning, but returned yesterday to England. They report that Mr. Manning's health is greatly improved. They dined with Minister McLane, and received a large number of Americans at a tea given by Mrs. Corning, which was as crowded with English-speaking people as it had been given in Washington. The following were among the most notable guests: Mrs. Rufus King, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Curtis and Mrs. Milton Grethens, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Schenck, of Paris; Minister McLane and Miss McLane, Mrs. John Lamson, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Robb, of New York; Miss Walsh, of Albany; Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Troy; Miss Bonnet, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Major, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wheeler, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, of New York; Mrs. Trevelyan, of England; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blackman, of Paris; Mr. Harry Sands, of New York; Mr. Fred. Martin, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tuck and Miss Tuck, of New York; Mrs. H. and Mrs. M. Dry, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, of New York.

Cornelius Vanderbilt has arrived from Berlin with his eldest son, and is stopping at the Hotel Bristol, Paris. He is on his way back to New York, which he only left less than three weeks ago for a little rest and sea air. At the same hotel are also Pierpont Morgan and family, Mr. Golet and Mrs. Golet, who spent the winter at Cannes; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence, Mr. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Astor, Mrs. Sarah Whitling Belmont and her mother, Mrs. Whiting, and the Misses Whiting, Mrs. Griswold Gray and Miss Trick, of Baltimore. In fact the whole house seems to be taken by New Yorkers. Opposite the Bristol, at the Hotel du Rhin, Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Corning, of Albany, are stopping, and also Mrs. August Belmont. The latter, however, is hardly ever seen, as she is in deep mourning.

Sounds Familiar.

VIENNA, May 11.—In the reichstrath yesterday Herr Pernersdorfer called attention to the management of the Allgemeine Krankenhaus, the largest hospital in Vienna. He said that statements had been made which appeared to be correct, that patients were given unwholesome and scanty food and sometimes were kept for days without any food; that there was only one bath in the hospital and that the nurses and attendants extorted money from patients and ill-treated those who were unable to pay. The government promised that an exhaustive inquiry would be made.

Prison Cells for Farnellites.

LONDON, May 11.—To-day's issue of the Pall Mall Gazette publishes a highly sensational rumor to the effect that the government is having prepared sixty-two first class cells in Millbank prison for the reception of the Farnellite leaders when the proper time shall arrive. The rumor is discredited in official quarters and probably has no foundation in fact.

Preparing for an Advance.

CALCUTTA, May 11.—It is rumored that the Russians are collecting supplies at Chardui, about 200 miles from the Afghan frontier, preparatory to an advance on Khamiab.

Is He too Feeble?

BERLIN, May 11.—Emperor William's physician has advised him not to go to Gastein this year.

Appearance of a Foul Crime.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., May 11.—The mysterious disappearance of Robert W. Jacobs, a young medical student of Unadilla, causes great alarm. He visited Sidney a few days ago and is supposed to have had $300 to $400 in his pocket. He was last seen Thursday afternoon in the woods about half a mile from Sidney. On Saturday a blood-stained pocket-book, marked "Robert W. Jacobs," containing papers which have been identified as his, was found in the woods about two miles from that village. It was distinctly marked with blood-stained fingers and contained no money. A hat has been found in the Susquehanna river which his father says belonged to Robert. He was twenty-six years old and was highly esteemed. Foul play is suspected and the river is being dragged for the body. There is no clue to the mystery.

Disgraceful Fight.

BELOIT, Wis., May 1.—James Collins, a drummer who is stopping here, was insulted Saturday night by a local "tough" and Collins gave him a good thrashing. Tom Hayes, a brother of the beaten man, took up the quarrel and abused Bradburn, the pugilist, who is in this city. Sunday morning Bradburn met Tom Hayes and gave him a severe pounding. Last night while Bradburn was reading in the office of the Grand hotel Tom Hayes and several companions attacked him in the office with big stones, and broke the windows, causing a general panic in the hotel. Bradburn, single-handed, fought and defeated the crowd, and gave some of his assailants cracked heads.

A Chinese Account.

NANKING, C. C., May 11.—During the search for bodies in the wrecked mine some Chinese writing has been discovered on a door, but no Chinamen can be induced to go down to translate it. It is doubtless an account of the accident or a last message by some of the Chinese victims.

Bat Keeper Suicides.

MIDDLEPORT, O., May 11.—Harry Smith, bar keeper at the New Era saloon, committed suicide at 8 o'clock this morning by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. This was his second attempt at self-destruction. Cause not known.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

West Virginia's legislature has adjourned sine die.

The impeding of a jury in the Chicago hoodlums' case has begun.

Parnell's illness is said to have been caused by cancer of the stomach.

The National Association of Wool Growers and Lumber Dealers meet in St. Louis Wednesday.

Old Miser Hen, of Wall street, who lived on eight cents a day that he might die rich, left $1,500,000 to his adopted daughter, now his bookkeeper's wife.

Bishop Waterson, of Columbus, O., has returned to England after eight months in the Holy Land. He was the second American bishop to make the journey.

A new problem for the interstate commission is whether railroads can discriminate against colored men and force them to pay first-class fares to ride in separate cars.

Josephine Mallison, beautiful daughter of a wealthy Philadelphia manufacturer, became infatuated and married a fortune-teller whose only recommendation to notoriety is his hideous repulsiveness.

In a suit for damages against the city of Buffalo, growing out of an injury to a man's eyes from a fire department wire, the court ruled that firemen are not servants of the city in a way that makes the city liable for their negligence.

BASE BALL.—Cincinnati 18, Cleveland 9; Washington 7, New York 4; Chicago 7, Indianapolis 8; Detroit 10, Pittsburgh 8; Philadelphia 5, Boston 2; Memphis 16, New Orleans 6; Nashville 10, Mobile 7; Kalamazoo 16, Mansfield 8; Wheeling 5, Columbus 1.

Walter Vrooman, a Kansas City Socialist, in a speech at Allegheny City referred to the American flag as "a rag tied to a pole." The audience was prevented from mobbing Vrooman only by the timely arrival of the police, who arrested the speaker.

A DOUBLE MURDER.

Mother and Daughter Brained By Burglars With an Ax.

STUBENVILLE, O., May 11.—At Holliday's Cove, on the Pan-Handle, a few miles west of this city, a terrible crime was this morning brought to light—Mr. McWha, a resident of that place, a few days ago received several thousand dollars, a fact well known to his neighbors. Yesterday Mr. McWha had occasion to go to Pittsburgh, probably to deposit his money in a bank, and on returning this morning found his wife and daughter, a Mrs. Baker, lying dead in a pool of blood in their room. They had been murdered during the night, and evidence of a desperate struggle were discernible all about the room. Both women had been killed by a blow from an ax or hatchet, the force of the blow cleaving their heads in twain.

It is believed the murderers entered the house and, while searching for the money they knew Mr. McWha to have received, were surprised by one or both ladies, identified by them, and to cover up their tracks the would-be robbers killed the women. It is strongly suspected that the crime was committed by some one living close by, as the method of entering and ransacking the premises shows a perfect familiarity.

A Murdered Granger.

WASHINGTON, Ind., May 11.—At Alford, Pike county, night before last, Washington Carlisle stabbed Sherman Conrad in the neck, breast and arms six times with a pocket knife during a quarrel. Both were highly respected young farmers. Carlisle was jailed and Conrad will die.

Struck Gas.

PORTSMOUTH, O., May 11.—They struck gas last night at the Micklewait well at a depth of 125 feet.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Indications: Light local rains, variable winds generally easterly, slightly warmer.
